“When Facing the Enemy Is the Only Way to Redemption”

Captivating Film “Closure” by JFA Productions Scheduled to world Premiere open to public at Americana Pacific Theaters, Glendale starting March 13, 2015

Join the rare screening of a film that explores one broken and vindictive man’s influence to make a powerful difference through the toughest circumstance.

LOS ANGELES, CA – (JFA Productions – March 13, 2015) At last, JFA Productions will host the much-anticipated premiere public screening of “Closure” beginning March 13th at the distinguished Pacific Theaters in Glendale, CA. Joseph Hovsepian, the same Director who created the award winning film, “A Cry From Iran” and “A Tune of Nostalgia” now spearheads "Closure".

The synopsis follows Cyrus, a doctor who shockingly watches a group of Iranian Intelligence officers slaughter his innocent father in cold blood. Cyrus continues to live with memories of his father when he is suddenly faced with a conflicted choice: the power to spare or kill the man who ended the life of his father. The thought provoking film strikingly portrays religious oppression, the loss of life and the power of grace amidst bitter resentment.

The loss of a family member, desire for revenge, and struggle to forgive is not a foreign concept to the lead actor Andre Hovsepian, as he had to confront his own father's brutal death by extremist groups in Iran in 1994. “Closure” is the heartrending film inspired by the true and remarkable stories of Iranian Christian martyrs. This film was produced in partnership with Voice of the Martyrs Canada and Strategic Resource Group.
